III. PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Mick Carrico: Expressed his pleasure in the fact that the Town was starting the music series and he wanted the businesses to succeed. He applauded the job the Town and Council was doing. He was opposed to closing the Alley for the entire summer. Would like to see it close only for Friday, Saturday and Sunday and open up on Monday morning. For his use and also he believed that Broadwater Drug would also be opposed to it closing for the entire series and summer. He asked if a traffic count for that street had been done.

Mark Freeman, Economic Redevelopment Chairman: Gave a background of events and planning leading up to Kickin' Back @ King Alley. Explained that they would like to become a part of Crooked Road. Explained that it would be better to be able to leave stage up for the summer except for the couple of weeks around the July 4th weekend.

Public Comment was closed at 6:42 P.M.

III. NEW BUSINESS

- Discussion and decision regarding temporary closure of King Alley – Discussion included possible alternatives of closing King Alley, size of stage, how long it took to take up and down, storage, wear and tear of stage.
