3) Subdivision Ordinance: Roger Cassell questioned whether the Subdivision Committee will have any input in the planning of the Marvin Egan Sub-division before construction begins. Faye Sanders responded that the Commission did recommend that Town Council rezone the property to accommodate the construction plans presented to Town Council but is not aware of any further communication concerning the property. Attorney Brooks stated that beyond the recommendation for rezoning, construction over-site would be in the hands of the Building Inspector. C) TOWN COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVE MEMBER:

He also suggested that dividing revenue and expenditures for the water and sewerage departments into separate financial accounts, rather than the general fund, would make auditing of each fund less complicated and more transparent.

(B) Council is considering changing the Town Charter to allow for four-year staggered terms for Council members.

GATE CITY TOWN ATTORNEY:

(A) Attorney Brooks brought passages from the amended pending agreement, between the Town of Gate City and V-DOT to the attention of Commission members. There are still areas that need to be altered or removed. She will contact Juanita Wells of V-DOT to clarify these items. Roger Cassell asked the attorney to obtain more information on what remediation V-DOT applied to the petroleum residue at the site.
